  - B. Bankruptcy; Insolvency: The appointment of a receiver or trustee to take possession of all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant located at the Premises if possession is not restored to Tenant within sixty (60) days; or a general assignment by Tenant for the benefit of creditors; or any action or proceeding is commenced by or against Tenant under any insolvency or bankruptcy act, or under any other statute or regulation having as its purpose the protection of creditors and, in the case of actions filed against Tenant, is not discharged within sixty (60) days.
19. Remedies. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that each Party shall have all remedies available at law or in equity if an Event of Default by the other Party has occurred and is continuing. In addition, if an Event of Default by Tenant has occurred and is continuing, then Landlord, may: (a) continue this Agreement in effect by not terminating Tenant's right to possession of said Premises and thereby be entitled to enforce all Landlord's rights and remedies under this Agreement; or (b) bring an action to recover and regain possession of said Premises in the manner provided by the laws of eviction of the state where the Premises are located then in effect.

In addition to any other remedies available to Landlord under this Lease, at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease, provided that Landlord shall send Tenant a 2nd written notice prior to terminating this Lease and if Tenant fails to commence to cure the Event of Default within fifteen (15) days of the 2nd written notice, then Landlord may terminate this Agreement. In the event that Landlord shall elect to so terminate this Lease, pursuant to Section 1951.2 of the California Civil Code, then Landlord may recover from Tenant: (i) the worth at the time of award of any unpaid rent which had been earned at the time of such termination; plus (ii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus (iii) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the Primary Term (or the balance of an Extension Term) after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; plus (iv) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by a Tenant's Default which in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom. As used in this Section 19, the "worth at the time of award" is computed by allowing interest at the Interest Rate (defined below). As used in this Section 19, the "worth at the time of award" is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus one percent (1%).

Landlord shall also have the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (Landlord may continue lease in effect after lessee's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has right to sublease or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). In the event of a Tenant Default, in addition to any other remedies available to Landlord under this Lease, at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the right to continue this Lease in full force and effect, whether or not Tenant shall have abandoned the Premises. In the event Landlord elects to continue this Lease in full force and effect pursuant to this Section, then Landlord shall be entitled to enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover rent as it becomes due.

All rights, options and remedies of Landlord contained in this Section and elsewhere in this Lease shall be construed and held to be cumulative, and no one of them shall be exclusive of the other, and Landlord shall have the right to pursue any one or all of such remedies or any other remedy or relief which may be provided by law or in equity, whether or not stated in this Lease. Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect Tenant's indemnification of Landlord pursuant to any provision of this Lease.

20. Exclusions. Tenant has disclosed that it will assume the risk of damage to its personal property and trade fixtures, and Landlord acknowledges and accepts such assumption. Tenant, as a material part of the consideration to Landlord and as part of its obligations hereunder, assumes all risk of damage to any Incidental Equipment, and Tenant expressly releases Landlord and waives all claims in respect thereof against Landlord, except for such claims that are caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord and its authorized representatives or as otherwise provided for herein. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Party expressly releases the other from any claims for, speculative, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, including any lost sales or profits of the other Party.

To the extent the Infrastructure or Incidental Equipment installed by Tenant may be considered a "public work," as defined in Labor Code § 1720, et. seq., Tenant shall comply with the state prevailing wage law, California Labor Code §§ 1720 et seq. and 8 CCR § 16000 et seq. for any "public work" (as that term is defined in the statutes) performed pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of compliance with prevailing wage law, Tenant shall comply with provisions applicable to an awarding body. Compliance with state prevailing wage law includes, without limitation, payment of at least prevailing rates as determined by the Director of Industrial Relations, overtime and working hour requirements, apprenticeship obligations, payroll record-keeping requirements, and other obligations as required by law.

27. Taxes. Tenant understands and acknowledges that the Landlord's grant of non-exclusive use may be subject to property taxation and that Tenant may be subject to the payment of possessory interest tax levied on the grant of non-exclusive use pursuant to California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 107.6. Tenant shall pay without abatement, deduction, or offset any possessory interest taxes levied on or assessed against the Premises and the Incidental Equipment which are directly and solely attributable to Tenant's use of the Premises, whether belonging, owned or chargeable against the City. Tenant shall make all such payments directly to the charging authority prior to delinquency and before any fine, interest, or penalty becomes due or is imposed for Tenant's non-payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, have the right to challenge the assessment. Tenant shall provide Landlord with proof of payment of such tax.

28. Public Records Act. Tenant acknowledges Landlord is subject to the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code, Section 6250, et. seq.). If Landlord receives a request for records related to information obtained from Tenant pursuant to this Lease, Landlord, to the extent permissible under applicable law, agrees to provide Tenant with written notice of such request within seventy-two (72) hours of its receipt of the records request. Tenant shall then have the time period specified in Landlord's notice to determine whether it considers any of the information confidential proprietary information and whether it will take legal action to prevent disclosure of the requested information. Tenant acknowledges a request for records under the California Public Records Act will require prompt response from Tenant given Landlord's obligation to respond to such request within ten (10) days of its receipt of such request for records. Absent a timely response, Landlord shall release all of the requested records. Landlord shall have no monetary liability whatsoever to Tenant for release of information pursuant to a request under the California Public Records Act or any subpoena; nor shall Landlord be obligated to defend against any challenge related to a California Public Records Act request or a subpoena for records that Tenant asserts are confidential. Tenant further agrees to indemnify, hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims, causes of action, damages, and judgments, as well as reasonable attorney fees and actual costs, resulting from a challenge related to a records request or subpoena for records that Tenant asserts are confidential. Tenant's indemnity obligations under this Section 28 shall survive the Termination Date.

Landlord Termination Option. If a Hazardous Materials violation occurs during the Term and is caused by a third party, Landlord may, at Landlord's option, either (i) investigate and remediate such Hazardous Substance Condition, if required, as soon as reasonably possible at Landlord's expense, in which event this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, or (ii) if the estimated cost to remediate such condition exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), give written notice to Tenant of the estimate of the cost of remediation (the "Remediation Notice") and Landlord's willingness to proceed with remediation on a 50/50 sharing basis with Tenant for all costs to remediate, provided however, if Tenant does not elect to contribute to the costs of remediation within thirty (30) days receipt of the Remediation Notice, as described above, Landlord or Tenant shall each have the right to terminate this Agreement upon sixty (60) days following the date of the Remediation Notice. Should Tenant elect to contribute to the remediation costs, Tenant shall provide Landlord with said funds or satisfactory assurance thereof within thirty (30) days following such commitment. Upon such commitment to remediate between the Parties, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect, and Landlord shall proceed to make such remediation as soon as reasonably possible after the required funds are available.
